ABOUT THE STATE

Dr. Thomas Mould of Rutland, whose throat was so badly cut recently while he was eating breakfast food, was operated on by Dr. Lennox Curtis, of New York Monday and a piece of glass or porcelain over a half inch long was removed. Doctor Mould is expected home in a few days.

Died at Soldiers' Home.

Silas Newman, aged 67 years, died at the soldiers' home hospital, Bennington, Tuesday evening, October 20, having been taken there from his home near North Bennington in the afternoon.
Death was due to pneumonia. The deceased was a member of Company A, 4th Vt. Regt., during the Civil War.

Found Dead in Cemetery.

Louis Marshall, son of B. W. Marshall, superintendent of Evergreen cemetery, Rutland, was found dead in an old cemetery at Rutland Wednesday morning. He was addicted to the drug habit and death is supposed to have been due to an overdose of chloral. He had been dead thirty-six hours when found. He is survived by his wife and five children.

A Prayer for Rain.

The Rt. Rev. Arthur C. A. Hall of Burlington, Bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Vermont, has issued the following:

During the continuance of the drouth the following prayer is authorized for use in our congregations, and is recommended for private and family use.
"O God, the Maker and Ruler of heaven and earth, who has taught us to bring our wants before Thee, we pray Thee to regard our present necessity, and to send us such refreshing rains as may relieve our needs, and free us from the tangles of fire and sickness, through Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen."

Junior American Mechanics Meet.

The annual meeting of the State Council of Vermont, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, was held in Wells Friday Wednesday. About thirty delegates were present. The state council, W.
H. Jeffrey of East Burke presiding. Mr.
Jeffrey in his address to the delegates said in part:

During the year we have made a gain of twelve in new councils, reinstated four, and lost three, one by consolidation and two by becoming defunct, leaving a net gain of thirteen in the number of councils for the year. Rising Star No. 41 of Concord was defunct for a long time prior to my election, and I deemed it my duty to revoke the charter and collect the supplies. Hope No. 21 of Stratford has been practically dead for years and when I was elected stood suspended.

North Troy No. 47 seemed to have more than a fair share of the troubles of the year, and finally, after a long period of the membership transferred to Newport Center Council No. 41. To-day every council is in good standing, a thing that never obtained prior to this year in the history of this state council. The new councils instituted this year are as follows:

Ethan Allen No. 25, at Brownington Center; Redfield Proctor No. 24 at Woodbury; Samuel C. Crafts No. 23 at Craftsbury; Lamont No. 20, at Hyde Park; Mount Sterling No. 30, at Morrisville; Hilton No. 32, at Johnson; Cambridge No. 33, at Cambridge; Stowe No. 34 at Stowe; Crawford No. 6, at Putney.

CAN ENJOY YOUR MEAL

Give Your Stomach a Good Eat Without Fear

END ALL THIS MISERY

Whatever You Eat Will Be Digested Leaving Nothing to Ferment—if You Will Take Diapiesin You Will Be Rid of Indigestion.

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from indigestion and stomach trouble is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking Diapiesin.

If your stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a re-inforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach.

People with weak stomachs should eat Diapiesin after meals, and there will be no more indigestion, no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, sour risings, gas on stomach or belching of undigested food, headaches, dizziness or vomiting, and, besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved five minutes after eating one Triangule of Diapiesin.

Go to your druggist and get a 50 cent case of Diapiesin now, and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. They freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.

WAITING FOR RAIN.

Fires Near Bennington Are Still Uncontrolled.

Bennington, Oct. 24.—The two forest fires which are burning in this vicinity one on Bald mountain near the town of Searsburg, and the other and most extensive, that on Green Mountain in the towns of Shaftsbury and Glastenbury, were still uncontrolled yesterday. It is believed that until rain comes neither can be successfully roped with, as but little water is available. The Eagle Square company has been already lost about one square mile of standing timber by the Green Mountain fire, while that on Bald mountain has covered some 400 acres.

THE TYPEWRITER'S ERASER.

Even the Most Expert Operators Have Need of It Sometimes.

"Of course you understand," said the typewriter girl, "that even the most expert of typewriters may sometimes have to rub; that is, to erase. One may take forty or fifty letters in a day in short-hand and then transcribe them on the machine without a mistake, but on another day not do so well."

"When we do make a mistake we know it instantly. The expert typewriter learns typewriting by the touch method, if she touches the wrong key she knows that as surely as she would if she had touched the wrong key on a piano, and if the mistake is one that should be corrected she stops and corrects it right then and there."

"The eraser she uses is a disk of rubber with a metallic centerpiece having a hole through it; the edges of this opening enable the user of the eraser to get a firm grip on it. With this eraser, rubbing to the right, the typewriter rubs out the wrong letter, and one left with the use of it does this so lightly as not to mar the neighboring printed letters and so as not to leave any blur on the paper, and then she prints in the right letter and goes ahead."

"Though she may not often have occasion to use it, the typewriter gets used to her own individual eraser; it becomes accustomed to it, and she becomes accustomed to it."

"Then comes a time when her eraser begins to wear out, as mine is doing now, and then we break in a new one.
The new eraser is slightly surfaced to give it a finish, and so it does not bite the ink as well as one a little worn, and it is bigger, of course, than the worn down old one. We have got to become accustomed to it and to wear it down to suit our touch."

"I shall break in this new eraser on your about which I am not so particular, reserving the old one for such use as can still be got out of it for the finest work, and by the time the old eraser is completely worn out I shall have the new one ready for any use."—New York Sun.

HENRY DRUMMOND WOLFF.

British Ambassador to Spain from 1892 to 1900 Dead.

Brighton, England, Oct. 24.—Dr. Henry Drummond Wolff, ambassador to Spain from 1892 to 1900, died here recently. He was born in 1830.

As a member of parliament for Christchurch and afterward of Portsmouth, he was a powerful ally of Mr. Balfour.
His first public office was as a clerk in the foreign office. In 1882 he became the acting chargé d'affaires at Florence; was secretary to the earl of Malmesbury when he was foreign secretary in 1885, and then distinguished himself in 1878 as representative of Great Britain on the European commission for organizing eastern Roumelia.

In 1885 the government sent him on a special mission to the Sultan. Subsequently he was for two years minister of the court of Persia, and from the middle of 1891 until 1892 was stationed at Bucharest.

On his father's side Sir Henry was an Israelite and on his mother's third in descent from the great Prime Minister Walpole. The father was the eccentric and remarkable individual Joseph Wolff, who after visiting all parts of the world, reached the United States and created something of a sensation by being ordained to the Episcopal ministry.

Dr. Joseph Wolff made three remarkable journeys through central Asia and was the first missionary to Tehran.
He married Lady Georgiana Walpole, daughter of the second Earl of Oxford, and Sir Henry was their only child.

It is said when Dr. Wolff captured the heart of the earl's daughter, the earl sent for him and wished to know how an adventurer, a missionary and a Hebrew, could dare to aspire to the hand of a Walpole.

"Stay! stay! my lord!" exclaimed Wolff, as he took from his breast a small roll of parchment. "Let me read to your lordship the long lineage of your lumbie servant," and he began with "Joseph, the son of —, the son of David, king of Israel. There, my lord, if you have a pedigree equal to that, we will discuss ancestry."

SIMPLE CEREMONY.

Funeral of Professor Norton Held in Appleton Chapel at Harvard.

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 24.—The funeral of the Prof. Charles Elliot Norton, was held in Appleton chapel at Harvard university shortly after noon yesterday. The services were simple, yet with nobility and consisted of the reading of selections from the Bible, a brief prayer, two Latin hymns, sung by the college choir, and the hymn, "O God I Thank Thee," written by Professor Norton's father.

There was a large attendance, including many notable men and women of the literary and educational world.
The honorary pall bearers were President Charles W. Eliot, Prof. F. W.
Goodrich, H. H. Furness of Philadelphia, Major Henry L. Higginson, William D. Howells, Professors C. H.
Moore, William James, G. H. Palmer and Barrett Wendell of Harvard, Dr.
F. W. Emerson, Lawrence G. Godkins, W.
K. Thayer and Gardner H. Lane.

The active pall bearers were eight members of the senior class.

The burial at Mt. Auburn was private.

FIRES BREAK OUT AGAIN.

Large Fire Fighting Forces Sent to Stay Their Progress.

Hardwick, Oct. 23.—A forest fire which has been smoldering since the heavy rain of several days ago at a point where the towns of Hardwick, Wolcott, Greensboro and Shaftsbury converge, broke out afresh yesterday and last night had developed such serious proportions that all the available men of the four towns were sent to fight the flames.

The threatened region consists of over 1,000 acres, the most of which is covered with heavy timber.

Farm buildings in the towns of Wolcott and Greensboro were greatly endangered by the fire and most of the efforts of the men were directed towards protecting them.

YOUR HAT

May Be a Stylish One, But It Makes Trouble.

A man usually buys a hat that "is style," but the modern hat for men has lots to answer for.

Baldheads are growing more numerous every day. Hats make excellent breeding places for the parasite germs which sap the life from the roots of the hair.

When your hair begins to fall out and your scalp is full of dandruff it is a sure sign that these countless germs are busily at work.

There is but one way to overcome the trouble and kill the germs—that way is to apply Newbore's Herpicide to the scalp—it will kill the germs and healthy hair is sure to result.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamp for sample to The Herpicide Co., Chicago, Ill.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

STRICT SUNDAY IN NEBRASKA.

The State Supreme Court Upholds
"Blue Laws."

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 24.—The supreme court yesterday sustained the legality of the Nebraska blue laws forbidding almost all Sunday business transactions.
The court upheld the refusal of the district court of Douglas county to grant a writ of habeas corpus for John Ryan, an Omaha cigar dealer, and Jacob Caldwell, an Omaha barber. These men were arrested under a state statute and the prohibition of the court becomes state wide.
